

Meet Martha McClerkin – Virginia State Certified Home Inspector

Martha, started out her career as a Realtor in 1994, and continues to hold her real estate license to this day. She was the President of the Richmond Association of Realtors in 2007. In 2015, Martha married Michael Bryan, who had been one of her home inspectors for over twenty years. She began to assist Mike on home inspections doing such things as testing interior doors, windows, plumbing fixtures, appliances, etc. Martha enjoyed inspecting homes. She joined ASHI National and Central Virginia ASHI in 2019, attended and graduated from Kenny Hart's Virginia Home Inspector Training academy and went on to pass the National Home Inspection Examination on her first try. She has inspected over 4,000 homes since 2016. Together Mike and Martha inspect approximately 530 residential and commercial properties a year. Their record number of inspections in one year was 795 in 2018.
